A Negro Murders a Citizen of Maury County.

We take the following from the Columbia Herald of Nov. 8: "A negro man, Willis Webster, stabbed Mr. Wm. Reese, near Cross Bridges, last Wednesday morning. It seems that the day before in Mr. Reese's absence, some member of his family had a misunderstanding with Webster's wife. The next morning, Mr. Reese asked Webster some questions about the difficulty, when the latter called him a 'd-d liar,' whereupon Mr. Reese slapped him in the times with a knife, once in the abdomen, face. Webster then cut Mr. Reese several inflic lag a wound from which he died. Our excellent sheriff being busy attending to the election returns, sent R. N. McBride, and others, after the culprit, who succeeded in all stressing him and placing him in jail. It is afforded to business is very great. The Mr. Reese was a good citizen, and was great excitement in Lexington and further weather continues fine. Twenty-four highly esteemed by his neighbors. He was a member of the first Tennessee cavalry.

THE KATIE.

She Breaks in Two-A Total Loss. Mamphis, Nov. 9 .- Dispatches received at a late hour last night state that the steau er Katie, sunk at Helena yesterday morning, had broken in two and would prove a total loss. The first news received of the disaster indicated that she would be easily raised and the damage slight, but it seems that while being removed she broke in two amidships. She originally cost two hund of shousand dollars, was partly owned Thursday night. by Ga A. Camon, her communder, and was insured for sixty thousand dollars in Cincinna and Wheeling offices. She had 375 bales of cotton, 350 boxes of cheese and 80 barrais of whisky shipped here and insured a open policies of consignees.

A BR-A dispatch from Helena says so of the Katie is saved except the the hold, which will be slightly d, but ultimately saved. The macomery, furniture and state room doors of the boat is all that can be saved.

Cabinet Speculations.

Special to the Cincinnati Commercial. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The gossip in regard to Gen. Grant's Cabinet for his next term has been quite free, but it does not represent all the facts. There will be no new Cabinet appointed on the 4th or 5th of March next, according to the best authority at hand. Mr. Fish will, it is true, retire from office at that time, and another will be appointed to fill his place. The subject has been talked about among the members of the Cabinet, and they have informally

Several Firemen Killed. The Fire Still Raging at 4 A.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 9 .- A very extensive conflagration is now raging at the corner of Summer and Kingston streets.

10 P. M. There is no abatement in conflagration. It is the most extensive fire that has visited Boston for twenty years, and is in the solid drygoods portion of the city. It has extended the entire length of Winthrop Square, which embraces A. T. Stewart's, J. M. Beebe's, Anderson, Heath & Co., and Houghton, Perkins & Co.'s to the elective franchise, and will carry it, if stores. No estimate of the loss can be necessary, to the United States Supreme stores. No estimate of the loss can be given, but reporters say it will go into millions. The suburban fire department has John M. Krum and Francis Mines, and the been called upon. statement of the extent of the devastation. The fire is burning as hercely as ever and will probably cross Milk street towards State street.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

Worse than Breach of Promise. ST. Louis, Nov. 9 .- On the first of Octo er Virginia L. Miner, of this city, applied at one of the registering offices to be registered as a voter, and her request was refused on the ground that the constitution of Misentitled to vote. To-day Mrs. Miner, joined by her bushand as the law requires, entered suit in the Circuit Court against Reese Hop-persett, the Registrar, claiming damages in the sum of $10,000. Plaintiff's petition protests against the decision of the Registrar, and declares the constitution of Missouri in conflict with the constitution of the United States, and cites several sections thereof, especially the fourteenth amendment, to substantiate her claim to citizen-ship. Mrs. Miner is the wife of Francis Miner, a highly respectable lawyer of this city, and at present Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State. He has been an active worker in the woman movement, and

CRUMBS OF COMFORT. Mr. Greeley has the following "crumbs

There has been no time, until now, within the last twelve years, when the Tribune was not supposed to keep, for the benefit of the idle and incapable, a sort of Federal employment agency, established to get places under government for those who were indisposed to work for their living. Any man who had ever voted the Republican ticket believed that it was the duty and the privilege of the editor of this paper to get him a place in the Custom-house. Every red-nosed politician who had cheated at the caucas and fought at the polls looked to the editor of the Tribune to secure his appointment as gauger, or as army chaplain, or as minister to France. Every campaign orator came upon us after the battle was over for a recommendation as Secretary of the Treasury or the loan of balf a dollar. If one of our party had an interest pending at Washington, the editor of the Tribune was telegraphed in frantic haste to come to the capitol, save this bill, crush that one, promote one project or stop another. He was to be Everybody's Friend, with nothing to do but to take care of other folks' business, sign papers, write letters, and ask favors for them, and get no thanks for it either. Four-fifths of these people were sent away without what they wanted, only to become straightway abusive enemies;— it was the worry of life to try to gratify one demand in a dozen for the other fitth. The man with two wooden legs congratu lated himself that he could never be troubled with cold feet. It is a source of profound satisfaction to us that office-seekers will keep aloof from a defeated candidate who has not influence enough at Washington or Albany to get a sweeper appointed under the Sergeant at-Arms, or a deputy-sub-assistant temporary clerk into the pastepot section of the folding room. At last we shall be let alone to mind our own affairs and manage our own newspaper without being called aside every hour help lazy people whom we don't know and to spend our strength in efforts that only benefit people who don't deserve assistance. At last we shall keep our office clear of blatherskites and political beggars, and go about our daily work with the satisfaction save the new unfinished post office build- of knowing that not the most credulous of ing. Meade an excellent citizen and a brave and capable soldier. He was the first of the commanders of the Army of the Potomac The steam fire engines have reached here | who did not reach that position through from Worcester. They were pushed personal intrigue or personal or political through by rail, a distance of 44 miles in favoritism. He won his way fairly by force of merit, and his skillful disposition of his forces and resolute, intelligent valor won the memorable field of Gettysburg. It will, perhaps, be remembered that he was in immediate command of the Army of the Potomac in the campaign of the Wilderness, receiving general directions from Grant, who was Lieutenant General and Commander in-chief. The story that the Wilderness, and was prevented by the stubborn will of his superior officer is untrue-a mere bit of the high coloring with which the history of those who obtain the appointing power is written. JOHNSON DEMOCRATS. To the Editor of the Union and America

The manner in which you abused, revited, misrepresented and endeav ored to intimidate the Johnson men wil not soon be forgotten by the men who were too true to principle to go back on the man who seemed to you and as you believed, to be the choice of the Democrats of Tennes-

Now, we Johnson men, who are genuin Democrats, say to the Banner and their co-workers in destroying the only party presenting a front to the Radically sectiona party, flatter not yourselves that a single Johnson man who was not already at heart a Radical, will fall into the snares that you are setting to entice us into your ranks. Thousands of Mr. Johnson's supporters supported him because they hon-estly thought him better qualified and more eminently calculated to further the great aims of the Democratic party, and more defiantly meet and repel the aggressive encroachments of sectional hatred against the South, presenting himself as he did in days gone by an insurmountable bulwark opposing such encroachments. Thousands vote1 for him to rebuke the convention from going so grossly contrary to the wishes of a large majority of the Democratic voters of the whole State, in not nominating Mr. Johnson instead of Gen. Cheatham. When the Banner, after the smoke of the battle and din of strife have left a clear and calm will be most woefully disappointed. No truer Democrats rejoice in the name than those who voted for Mr. Johnson. Let us have no backbiting amongst ourselves. Let the convention acknowledge its wrongness and want of foresight, and let Johnson Democrats be more compromising in future, and all strive more earnestly to wipe out the deep stain that the 5th day of Novem

DR. W. P. BARRISON'S LECTURE To the Editor of the Union and American. There are two reasons among many others why Dr. W. P. Harrison's lecture on Spiritualism ought to be well worth hear-ing: First, the Doctor's fondness for and proficiency in the Oriental and antique lore in which the history of necromancy in all its forms is recorded; secondly, his own nervous system is of that peculiar diathesis which enables him to test by personal ex-periment the feats of mediums. You will find the lecture learned and eloquent. D.
